Tours Into Upper Antelope Canyon

Beautiful glow inside the canyon

Light-shaft in second chamber

Reflective light producing orange glow inside the canyon's first room

Colors vary from red, orange, purple, and blue

Tour #1 - Sightseer Tour

Come with your guide to a spectacular petrified sand dune, created by wind, water and sand, presenting a sculptured masterpiece. Nothing can describe this work of Mother Nature. Trips are approximately 1-Hour 40-mins long and you will travel in comfort in a 4-wheel drive vehicle to the Canyon entrance. From there, you walk into the Canyon, you will be at the bottom of the Canyon looking up 130 feet to the top. There is no hiking or climbing involved, your time in the canyon will be 1-Hour to explore, photograph and enjoy the beauty. Then, you will return to the vehicle and return to Page.

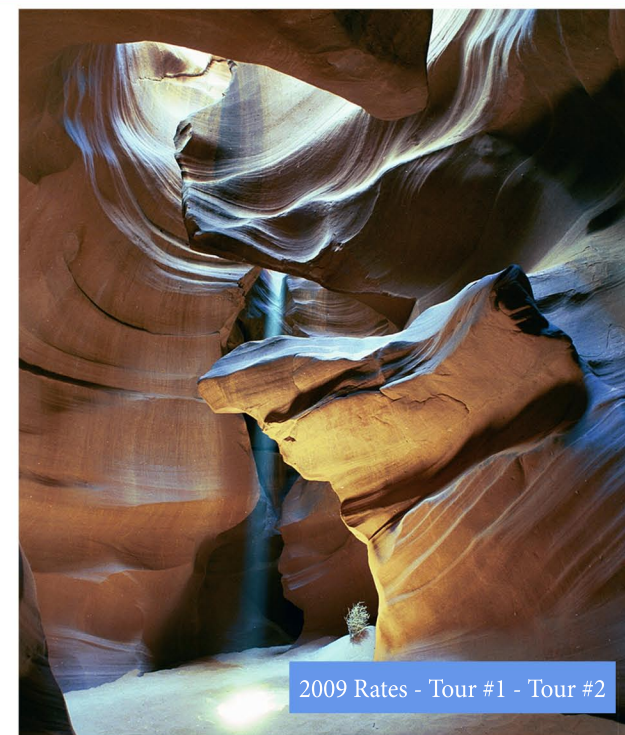

Tour #2 - Photographer's Tour

Designed for experience to professional photographers only. Limited seating; maximum 12 per day. Tour last for 2-hours 40 mins and advance Reservations are highly recommended. Our guide will be available to patrol traffic and point out highlights of the canyon. Tours are not a Photo workshop. After your 2-hour experience in the canyon your guide will return you to Page. When spaces run out we also offer a Split Tour: Going out twice to the canyon with two Tour#1 tours back to back, either at 9:30AM & 11:30AM or 11:30AM & 1:30PM. This is another way to capture two different lighting conditions within the same canyon at our Photographic Tour rate.

The mysterious and haunting beauty of Antelope Canyon (also known as "Corkscrew Canyon") awaits the adventurous traveler who seeks to discover one of the most spectacular, yet little known attractions of the Lake Powell area. A tour to this awe-inspiring sculpture set in stone is a must for amateur and professional photographers alike. Come see nature's surprising masterpiece of color.

First chamber of Antelope Canyon

Purple and Blue colors

Light-shaft within the canyon

Beautiful Navajo Sandstone, great example of cross-bedding throughout the canyon

Travel in a 4-wheel drive vehicle that is both rugged and safe yet comfortable. You enjoy a scenic ride to the canyon where the guide explains geology, cultural history and modern issues.

Upon arrival at the site you will step into the desert and enter an amazing fantasy world in stone. For photographers, with proper exposures, you can bring out the best in your own creativity. For non-photographers there is a magical new world to explore and immerse yourself in. The colors are rich and deep in the morning and afternoon, famous light beams occur mid-day during the months of April to September. If you don't know the best time to take your tour, just drop us a note and we'll help you decide.

Return visitors should note that the road to the Canyon has been gated by the Navajo Nation; only authorized tour guides are permitted to enter.

Upper Antelope Canyon tours depart from our office at 22 South Lake Powell Blvd in Page, AZ. As you may see with the map above our office is right in the middle of town. Look for our Monster Trucks.

Please note you are still able to take pictures on our Tour #1, those with hand-held cameras will find this tour plenty of time to take awesome pictures inside the canyon. Tour #2 is mostly for serious photographers.

Suggested Equipment for photographers: Tripod, Small Pen-light, Extra Film, Memory, Batteries, and Cable Release or Remote. Tripods may be available upon request.

This image is a perfect example of how simple the walk is into the canyon. as you can see we enter at ground level into the canyon. There are no steep hills or cliffs involved. it's like a walk on the beach.

Riding conditions to the canyon is comfortable and safe. Our trucks are equipped with seat belts and an overhead canopy to block the sun and most of the heat in the summer months. We do have both open-aired trucks and enclosed vehicles but most people prefer to be out in the open. During our winter months we run enclosed vehicles, however, open aired trucks are available upon request, give us a try you'll cherish the experience forever.
